Cordova Bay Home Levelled by Fire

Two Neighboring Houses Threatened As Firemen, Residents Fight Blaze

Flames, lashed by a biting 30 m.p.h. wind last night reduced the home of David Cook, Cordova Bay, to charred ruins.

The house and all its contents were completely destroyed and the blaze threatened two other homes for over half an hour.

The flames were first seen by Mrs. Tony Ross at 10:45 p.m. She reported them to her husband, Mr. Ross, immediately called Spanish firemen and rushed to help an elderly couple, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hutton, 80, living nearby, to leave their home.

A party of residents, including Bruce and Erick McMoran, Allan Pottage, and Mr. Ross, desperately fought the fire until the Spanish firemen arrived.

Flames spread rapidly to nearby evergreen trees and fire-fighters had to fell several of them to protect surrounding homes.

Power lines were down and an emergency call was sent to trouble-shooters to prevent further accidents.

At an early hour this morning Spanish Fire Department was still standing watch to prevent the fire from breaking out again.

Mrs. Cook had taken her two small children to see a show in Victoria. Her husband, a veteran of the Canadian Army Dental Corps, went to Vancouver on Monday.

Earlier in the evening, Spanish firemen extinguished a chimney fire at 339 Ker Avenue while city firemen were called to 687 Superior Street at 6:45 p.m. and 1239 Sunny-side at 7:31 p.m.

Three Nations Are Placed On Security Council

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (AP)—A primary session of the United Nations General Assembly today quickly filled three pending vacancies on the Security Council but ran into a stalemate in attempts to elect six replacements on the Economic and Social Council.

Belgium, Colombia and Syria were elected on the first ballot for two-year terms to replace The Netherlands, Mexico and Egypt whose terms expired.

Colombia received 51 votes, Syria 45 and Belgium 43. India received 13 votes, Norway four.

Vacancies on the Economic and Social Council are being created by expiration of the one-year terms of Lebanon, United States, Greece, Colombia, Ukraine and Yugoslavia. Unlike the Security Council, those members are eligible for re-election.

On the first ballot the United States was re-elected with 51 votes, New Zealand and Venezuela were elected with 46 and 44 votes respectively, and no others received the necessary two-thirds.

On the second ballot Lebanon was re-elected. No other country received enough.

Two more ballots failed to give any two states enough votes to win. On the last ballot Turkey received 29 votes, Byelorussia 28 and The Netherlands 26.

The Board of Review, under Mr. Justice Kellier McKay of Toronto, reviewed 1,895 wartime sentences in all and recommended that 574 of the men be released immediately and 1,166 be released at a future date.

Vancouver Water Is "the Best" Says Mayor; Dominion Says "No"

VANCOUVER, Nov. 19 (CP)—Vancouver's water supply, piped from cool, mountain streams, is back in the news today with orders banning its use on Canadian public carriers.

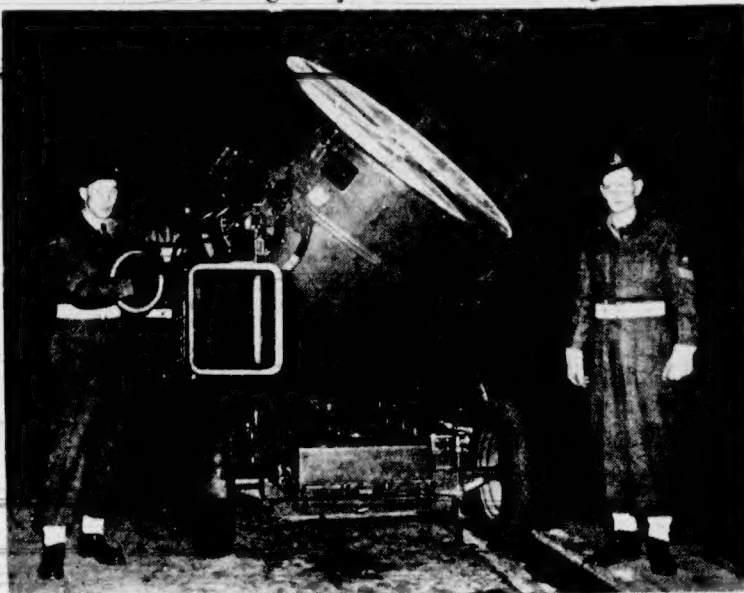

Mayor J. W. Dornett calls it "the best" water on the continent, free of chlorination, but the public health services of Canada and the United States differ.

Under the Federal order its use is banned on trains and ships because it is unchlorinated and "unsafe for human consumption."

The Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railway Companies and the Shipping Federation of Canada have been notified of the situation, but trains and ships are still leaving the port city with the soft, mountain water.

Giant Searchlight Symbol of Recruiting Drive

The 800,000-candle-power searchlight pictured above will be situated immediately in front of the Legislative Buildings throughout this week as a symbol of the Reserve Army's present drive to recruit 2,000 men. Men of the Royal Canadian Artillery are operating the searchlight. At the left is Gnr. Philip Still and at right, Sgt. V. E. Norman, both of the interim army. The local artillery unit, the 5th Regiment, R.C.A., commanded by Lt.-Col. George Paulin, is in dire need of recruits to bring the unit up to its postwar strength.

YENAN, Nov. 19 (AP)—Grim-faced Chou-en Lat, the Chinese Communists' chief negotiator, returned to this Communist capital today from Nanking, his peace mission a failure after almost a year of conferences with Government negotiators and United States Gen. George Marshall.

Amid feverish activities to ready the city for an expected attack by Government armies, Chou flew here in an American transport plane from Nanking under a safe conduct agreement. His landing was delayed while soldiers cleared the field of obstacles intended to prevent Government planes from using it.

Chou's return fulfilled his announcement at Nanking last week that his further stay in Nanking was without purpose because Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek was "refusing to discuss" agreements that had been reached last February by the all-party political consultative conference.

Shanghai newspaper reports that Marshall, special presidential envoy, would leave for the United States before November 30 were denied at his Nanking headquarters. Likewise denied by the headquarters spokesman were reports that United States Ambassador Stuart, who had been active with Marshall, would resign because the peace talks failed.

Case of the explosion was not officially determined, but it was reported to have resulted from ignition of gas being freed from an alcohol tank. Captain Philip Lemer, navy yard commander, said it was a gas explosion of some sort.

The Antietam, a 27,000-ton Essex class carrier, was tied up for repairs, her boilers down.

The dead civilian workman was identified as John Franklin Calverly of San Mateo.

NANAIMO, Nov. 19.—Six cases of liquor were stolen from the premises of the Island Freight Company, Rayne Street, early this morning. The liquor was part of a consignment of 26 cases from Victoria in transit to the Parkville Government liquor store. The theft was reported to local police, but no clues have been obtained up to the present. A rear window was broken to obtain entrance.

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad, Nov. 19 (CP)—Uniformed servicemen had to unload perishable cargoes today as the strike of 2,000 members of the waterfront workers' trade union continued despite a Government statement Sunday that the dispute for higher wages was virtually settled.

Of the entire 101,000 people in the area it is doubtful if one failed, at some time during the day, to remark on the cold spell. It was a field day for fur coat wearers, and a brisk one for those whose work takes them outdoors.

Red noses and potential chapped lips were the order for the day. Garage attendants were flooded with anxious motorists seeking antifreeze.

Practical, and viewing everything through a purely scientific eye, the weatherman was in no way alarmed at the cold. "It's not a record-beater by any means," he said, "and snow is not unusual for this month."

Up-island points received more snow than Victoria. Three inches were reported at Jordan River, and snow fell lightly most of the day in the Brentwood area. Drivers of Vancouver Island Coach Lines Ltd. reported no travel difficulties at island points, and regular schedules were in no way interrupted. Higher peaks on the island were rescaped with another layer of snow.

Greeks Fail To Hold Rebel Force

Government Loses Control in North

ATHENS, Greece, Nov. 19 (AP)—Panayotis Kanellopoulos, former Premier, changed today that Northern Greece "from Mount Olympus to the border" of Yugoslavia no longer was under control of the Government, setting off an acrimonious debate in which all Opposition members walked out of Parliament.

The mass walkout during the discussion of large-scale guerrilla operations came after Premier Constantinos Tsaldaris, hammering his desk with his fist, accused the members of all three Opposition parties of "anti-national criticism."

Alexander A. Pallas, chief press officer of the Greek Embassy in London, said Leftist guerrillas were defeating Government troops in Northern Greece, and placed the blame on what he described as "carefully planned support" from Yugoslavia, Bulgaria and Albania.

Addressing the United Nations Committee on U.N.R.R.A. of which he is chairman, Mr. Bloom declared that he personally would work "until the promises and good impressions are realized and the suffering peoples of the world know that we will give them the relief necessary."

Hon. Paul Martin, Canadian Secretary of State, and Philip Noel-Baker, British delegate, praised Mr. Bloom for his work as chairman of the U.N. committee created in London last February to urge full payment of U.N.R.R.A. contributions.

Mr. Bloom did not specify the means of continuing relief work after the dissolution of U.N.R.R.A. next year, an issue now being debated in the U.N. Assembly's Economic Committee.

COBH, Eire, Nov. 19 (CP)—The Ss. America, flagship of the United States Lines, dropped anchor in Cobh-Cork harbor tonight after setting a new record of four days, 22 hours and 22 minutes for an eastward Atlantic crossing by an American vessel.

The previous record of five days and five hours from Ambrose Light, New York, to Daunt's Lightship outside Cobh harbor was set before the war by the Ss. Manhattan, a sister ship of the America.

Commodore Harry Manning said the America averaged 24.54 knots an hour during its first commercial passage.

The Queen Mary established the international eastward Atlantic passage record in 1938 when it crossed from New York to Southampton in three days, 20 hours and 42 minutes.

Lewis Is Still Silent on Federal Demands That He Cancel Signal of "No Contract"

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19 (AP)—The army announced tonight it was prepared to take a hand in the United States coal crisis if requested, while John L. Lewis preserved an impenetrable silence on a Federal Court order designed to head off a full-scale bituminous strike.

Mr. Lewis, United Mine Workers' chief, gave no slightest hint of his attitude towards the order, under which he risks jail unless he cancels his notice from the contract with the Government, terminated Wednesday midnight.

The miners, to whom the word "no contract" are traditionally a signal to fling down their tools, were jumping the gun. Revised figures by the Solid Fuel Administration showed that the situation has made idle 288 Government-operated mines employing 74,188 men. Estimates in the S.F.A. calculated today's loss of production at 468,707 tons.

The War Department issued a statement saying: "I. Upon call from the Federal Coal Administrator, the War Department is prepared to cooperate fully in meeting the requirements set."

"2. To date, no call has been received."

A clause in the order under which the mines were seized by the Government says that the Federal Coal Mines Administrator may call upon other Government departments for needed assistance.

Often in the past, however, United Mine Workers members have said: "You can't mine coal with bayonets." The approach of the Wednesday midnight deadline means that Mr. Lewis will have to decide his course quickly.

Even should he promptly withdraw his notice to the Government that his working contract with it is terminated tomorrow, as the court directed him to do, much coal production is sure to have been lost. Government officials talked of possible electricity "brown out."

While Mr. Lewis' demands for a new contract have never been specified, they presumably include higher pay. One report is that he wants the same pay for a 40-hour week as for the present 54-hour week which includes 19 hours of overtime.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Provincial Police are searching for Alfred James, a resident of Kuper Island, who with his wife and two small children left Stevenson for his home last Saturday aboard the 38-foot L.J. 4125, a gill-net vessel.

His brother, Fred James, departed from Stevenson for Kuper Island on Sunday, and was surprised to find the missing man and his family had not reached the island. He said Alfred intended to proceed straight to his home.

Police searched Kuper, Thetis, Reid, Hall, Norway, Secretary and Wallace Islands without success. All are located off Chemainus.

U.S. Scraps Leyte Base

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19 (AP)—The navy plans to pull out of its war-built $72,000,000 Philippine base at Leyte, Samar, as soon as "Government property" can be disposed of, an official said today.

The only navy installations to be retained in the Philippines will be the submarine base at Subic Bay and air facilities at Sangley Point, near Manila, he added.

Abandonment of the Philippines as the key outpost of the Far Pacific was implied by Vice-Admiral Lynde D. McCormick, deputy commander in chief of the Pacific fleet.

"No one foresaw what expansion could be attained at Guam-Saipan," he declared, explaining that the Guam area would become kingdom of the Pacific Ocean defenses, backed up by Hawaii and supported to the north by the Aleutians.

Forty-four deserters have not been found. Some of them probably are dead or have found their way back to Canada, but the list is being turned over to the British Army which will continue the hunt.

The section was responsible for operation of the Canadian Wives Bureau in The Netherlands, Belgium and France.

The bureau has practically finished its job with about 50 women and children left in Belgium and 150 to 200 in Holland. Their movement will be undertaken by the Canadian Government's Immigration Branch.

British House Rejects Motion Criticizing Closed Shop Issue

LONDON, Nov. 19 (CP).—The closed-shop issue, injected last September as a new factor in British industrial relations, reached Parliament tonight as the House of Commons rejected 219 to 155 a motion criticizing closed-shop tendencies in British trade unionism.

This the Government side stepped the issue, which had been raised by the opposition.

The motion, principally supported by Liberal members, was put to a vote after a Conservative spokesman, Sir David Fyfe, asserted that larger unions are becoming "infected with a passion for bigness."

"They have a sort of numbers complex and seem to think that the efficiency of the union depends on the numbers they can show on their books," said Sir David, one of the British prosecutors at the Nuremberg trials.

The closed-shop issue came to a head early in September when the London Passenger Transport Board, which runs the city's transport system, accepted a closed shop agreement with the powerful Transport and General Workers Union.

Strong protest was expressed by Government critics, who said the closed-shop policy might be extended to other publicly-owned industries. The issue was blamed by Government opponents for contributing to a September wave of industrial unrest, unprecedented in Britain since V-J Day.

Sir David in his argument today said the Mineworkers' Union has asked for a closed shop agreement in British coal mines, scheduled to be taken over by the Government January 1, 1947.

"Under nationalization the closed shop is a form of tyranny which no free state should tolerate," he said.

Another phase of labor relations was discussed in the Commons when Hugh Dalton, Chancellor of the Exchequer, told the House the Government is "considering" a report by a Royal Commission which investigated the question of equal pay for men and women.

The nine-member commission, appointed by the Coalition Government in 1944, submitted its report last November 6, expressing a majority conviction that the obligations imposed by the principle of equal pay would outweigh its advantages.

Food problems were broached by several members. In reply Food Minister Strachey said "I honestly could not comment" whether bread rationing might be continued until 1947. He announced further relaxation on restrictions on opening of new food shops and disclosed that Sir Roland Will will go to the United States in 1947 to discuss food procurement arrangements.

Milk Industry In Ontario Investigated

TORONTO, Nov. 19 (CP).—A House of Commons investigating Ontario's milk industry was presented today with figures showing that consumers will have to pay approximately $9,000,000 more for milk each year as a result of increased retail prices, and that since 1942 supply has been below requirements.

Mr. Justice Dillion Wells, appointed to conduct an inquiry into all phases of Ontario's milk industry following discontinuance of a Dominion Government subsidy of two cents a quart last October 1, and subsequent increase in retail price to 16 cents a quart, heard C. M. Meek, chairman of the Milk Control Board, explain in detail steps leading to the increase.

Figures presented today showed that number of "bigger milk distributors" is increasing while number of "smaller distributors" steadily declines.

Cancellation of the subsidy resulted in a loss of $8,985,597 to the trade in Ontario, Mr. Meek stated. This loss would have to be made up by the consumer.

Mr. Meek presented to the commission figures which he said were compiled as a result of a survey of 40 dairies in the province, for the purpose of breaking down the "consumer's dollar." It showed 56.19 cents of every dollar went to the producer. The distributor's operating expense was estimated at 40.9 cents, which included plant operation, 12.24 cents; selling and delivering, 24.42 cents and administration 4.24 cents.

This left the distributor with an operating profit of 2.99 cents, compared with 2.94 cents in 1941.

Disabled Veterans Want Co-operation

PORT WILLIAM, Nov. 19 (CP).—Co-operation of Canadian industry in accepting disabled war veterans as employees is not all that might be desired and industry in general is "not as patriotic as it was during the war years," J. Caldwell, of Winnipeg, president of the Manitoba Command of the War Amputations Association of Canada, said here today.

Mr. Caldwell praised the Government's rehabilitation program for veterans but said the casualty rehabilitation section within the Department of Veterans Affairs was encountering difficulty in many instances through lack of co-operation by industry.

Statistics had established the partially-disabled veteran-employee was more reliable on the job than the non-disabled worker.

Indian Awarded U.S. Bronze Star

PORT WILLIAM, Nov. 19 (CP).—A Fort William Indian who served overseas with the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps has been awarded the United States Bronze Star. It was announced here today.

He is George F. Lesage, 24, now an employee at a Lakehead grain elevator. Lesage won his award on September 8, 1944, in Italy, where he displayed "great courage and perseverance" as an ambulance driver.

The medal will be presented Friday by J. T. Goodier, United States consul.

Strike Threat Hangs Over Coal Mines

WITH a showdown imminent between John L. Lewis and the United States Government over operation of the soft coal mines, 32,000 miners "jumped the gun" by staying away from the pits. Lewis has threatened a strike of his 400,000 soft coal miners for midnight, Wednesday (November 20), unless new wage rate demands are met.

The Government, which operates the mines under wartime contracts, has secured an injunction forbidding Lewis to call a strike in defiance of contracts still in effect. Shows discussing the threatened strike at pits of the Pittsburgh Coal Co. are tippleman John Relko, left, and miners Frank Gruznik and William Malter. Relko's daughter, Jeanne, right, looks on.

Chilliwack Man Dies in Storm B.C. Digs Out From Blizzard

By The Canadian Press
Borne on the wings of a fresh easterly wind, a frigid snap—but no more snow flurries—was predicted for the Pacific Northwest tonight (Tuesday) as parts of British Columbia dug itself out of a blizzard described as the worst in 26 years in the East Kootenay district.

British Columbia district man dead in the storm, many schools closed, traffic and wire services snarled but struggling back to normal.

Two youths—Roy L. Pike, 18, and a boy known only as "Tommy"—were sought on Grouse Mountain on Vancouver's North Shore. They failed to return from week-end hiking trips and apparently were caught up the mountain by the snowstorm.

Only death reported in British Columbia was that of Dudley Goddard, 60, who collapsed near Chilliwack while trudging through heavy snow. His body was found a mile from his home.

As weather predictions forecast the coldest temperatures since 1921 for Vancouver and the Lower Mainland Tuesday night, reports from south of the border told of facilities still disrupted in the blizzard which struck Seattle and other Washington points.

The blizzard, which hit the coast, was still withering because of broken lines.

The bitter cold snap in years was forecast for the Northwest States and centering in Northwest Washington where the temperature hit the low 20's.

Northern British Columbia was still stormbound, with Prince George and Prince Rupert isolated since Monday when telephone and telegraph services failed.

The Kootenays dug out of the worst blizzard in 26 years as the weather returned to normal. Almost two feet of snow fell at Nelson and reports from that district told of drifts as high as five feet.

Most schools were closed in the East Kootenay as they were in parts of Washington. At Cora Linn, B.C., Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lang, of Nelson, escaped serious injury when gale-like winds toppled a tree which smashed the hood of their car.

Buses, forced to cancel Kootenay schedules Monday, were getting back into operation, and the Canadian Pacific Railway's plough trains managed to keep open the Kootenay Valley line running into the Kootenays despite mountainous drifts of snow.

Trail has a ten-inch snowfall and the fall was even heavier at Cranbrook.

At Missoula, Mont., two Vancouver girls, Esther Dixon and Barbara Fitzsimmons, were injured when a bus overturned en route East.

A November gale lashed the Oregon and Northern California coasts on Tuesday as the storm moved south, shrouding highways in driving rain that caused storm warnings to be hoisted from Cape Blanco, Ore., as far south as Point Conception just north of Santa Barbara.

Heavy rains caused extensive damage in San Francisco, where street cars were stalled by water-soaked tracks and light failures were frequent. Numerous California highway accidents killed at least three persons and injured many more.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 19 (CP).—Winter weather sent Prairie residents shivering to their homes tonight, while the forecast gave no promise of any break within the near future.

Snows were overcast across the southern half of the Prairie Provinces and northward to the Peace River region in Alberta. Heavy snow was falling in Southern Alberta and the Regina region, while elsewhere the fall was light and intermittent.

At Baker Lake, in the Northwest Territories, meteorologists were unable to send out any temperature readings as they were snowbound in their cabin.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 19 (CP).—W. J. Landreth, manager of the Canadian Poultry Sales here, said today that there will be no shortage of eggs in Canada this winter.

Mr. Landreth was commenting on a recent report from Vancouver that Canada faces a serious egg shortage

Halifax Member Dies Suddenly

HALIFAX, Nov. 19 (CP).—William Chisholm Macdonald, member of Parliament for Halifax since 1910 and member of a prominent law firm, died suddenly early today.

A native of Baily's Brook, Pictou County, Mr. Macdonald was first elected to the Commons in the general election of 1940 and returned last year.

OTTAWA, Nov. 19 (CP).—The death of William Chisholm Macdonald, member of the Liberal party with 134 seats in the Commons compared to 119 held by the combined opposition.

Death Toll Heavy In Laundry Blast

GREENVILLE, S.C., Nov. 19 (AP).—Four persons were known to have been killed and over 100 injured in an explosion that demolished the Ideal Laundry plant and office building here tonight.

The fire was reported under control, although workers were not yet able to search the wreckage for bodies of an undetermined number of workers believed to have lost their lives in the blast.

While the cause of the explosion had not been officially determined, reports said officials of the laundry had found gas escaping from the plant's recently-installed heating system shortly before the explosion.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 19 (CP).—W. J. Landreth, manager of the Canadian Poultry Sales here, said today that there will be no shortage of eggs in Canada this winter.

Mr. Landreth was commenting on a recent report from Vancouver that Canada faces a serious egg shortage

Industry Flayed By C.C.F. Member

EDMONTON, Nov. 19 (CP).—William Irvine, C.C.F. member of Parliament for Cariboo, B.C., charged that Canadian industrialists were trying to "blow the lid off" price controls by holding supplies in warehouses to force higher prices, at a C.C.F. meeting here tonight.

"The election of the Republican party in the United States must be regarded as an evidence of reaction," Mr. Irvine told the meeting. "President Truman made a most significant declaration when he said, in effect, that industrialists had withheld goods from the market in order to force the lid off price control. He meant the monopolies exercised their economic power in order to control the Government of the United States."

"Canada will be affected by reaction in the United States. Our industrialists are just as active in their efforts to blow the lid off price control."

Mr. Irvine said the increase in the price of steel and farm machinery in Canada contrasted with the "resistance" to higher wages. "A subsidy unauthorized by Parliament had been granted to a steel company which already had received $40,000,000 in subsidies from the public treasury, while the Government refused to grant a subsidy on milk which Parliament had authorized," he said.

The speaker also claimed the people now were being betrayed for all the effort and sacrifice the nation put into the fight for democracy during the World War.

Toronto, Ottawa May Vote on Bars

TORONTO, Nov. 19 (CP).—Ontario's largest and third largest cities, Toronto and Ottawa, moved tonight toward obtaining Ontario Government permission for a referendum on the proposed establishment of cocktail bars.

Toronto made the first move when Board of Control today approved a motion by Controller Stewart Smith calling on the Provincial Government to amend existing liquor legislation which excludes Toronto, Windsor, Ottawa, Hamilton and London from holding a referendum on this question.

Within a matter of hours Ottawa had taken similar steps.

Under the present Liquor Licensing Act a plebiscite may be taken in communities of 50,000 and under on the cocktail bar question, but the same right is not extended to the five larger cities.

Mayor Stanley Lewis, of Ottawa, said, "the people, obviously, have the right to demand the privilege of casting a vote."

Controller McKellar said indications were that cocktail bars would be in operation in Toronto by the end of the year.

Change, Without Benefit

One can examine the records at the City Hall back to and including the election of Victoria's first mayor and find no occasion, that we can recall, of a chief magistrate ever having been refused his second term by acclamation—where he had demonstrated his competence in office to the electors who put him there. That precedent has been followed so universally that it is regarded by most citizens as an unbreakable rule. It would be a different thing, however, to remove that right from the shoulders of the electors, and to place it on those of an untied majority candidate by virtue of a Provincial statute. That is what is proposed in a referendum which will go before civic electors on December 12.

The argument most often advanced in its favor is that a two-year term in the chief magistrate's chair would bring out perhaps a wider choice of candidates. In the majority, however, quantity has no relation to the issue. It is quality that counts. A competent man will not need twenty-four months in which to demonstrate that he has a grasp of civic affairs, and the resolution to lead in the public interest. Conversely, no two-year term granted to an indifferent or mediocre nominee will improve the performance by a hair's breadth.

Victoria's mayors on the whole have not been required to do much in the way of "electioneering." The taxpayers, who pay the shot in any event, are quite competent to judge of the service rendered. If that has been good, acclamation follows automatically in a second mayoralty year. If it has not been good, the closure is put by the people at the end of one year. We can see no valid reason to change this. The electors should have first say and last say as to who is to guide the destinies of this community, without being blocked by statute for twenty-four months at a time. This would be change without any improvement. We believe the electors will defeat it.

Agent-General Honored

Mr. W. A. McAdam, British Columbia Agent-General in Great Britain, received a C.M.G. yesterday at the investiture of 250 men and women at Buckingham Palace with awards won for meritorious services in the World War. In some of the citations there were grim reminders of the bestiality of the Nazis while they were on top. In others, as in the case of our own Mr. McAdam, long and painstaking effort over and above the ordinary line of civil duty was the occasion for the award.

There will not be a Canadian in uniform anywhere who will not be pleased that Mr. McAdam has been recognized for his outstandingly fine service to this country during the six years of hostilities and long before that. Nearly every Canadian fighting man who passed through London, and tens of thousands did, experienced the help and hospitality of British Columbia House. Mr. McAdam did not rest there. His services were all embracing, and included invaluable contribution to many a Canadian family in doubt or anxiety about their loved ones overseas.

Only a few weeks ago Mr. McAdam and his wife were in Victoria on a brief test. His addresses before local and nearby audiences are well remembered. There was noticeable in them the same retiring modesty which played up the contribution of others at the total expense of his own. It will be with considerable satisfaction, then, that British Columbians will learn that their Agent-General in London has received this honor from the hands of His Majesty, in company with many gallant men and women of our times.

Nanaimo Huts

Sometimes it seems as though officialdom goes out of its way to make itself unpopular. The case of the Nanaimo army huts which local veterans want to purchase as lumber for new homes is one in point. Negotiations were under way with War Assets Corporation when for some reason the huts were turned over by the corporation to Housing Enterprises Limited, which gave notice it would demolish and remove them. The not unnatural result of this step was a threat by the veterans concerned to prevent their removal, a stand backed by civic authority in Nanaimo.

Someone apparently blundered. It is difficult to see why War Assets Corporation should not have completed the negotiations entered into in good faith by veterans' officials. The corporation is the agency which exists to dispose of surplus Government property, and the deal could have been a straight bargaining affair, easily consummated. In view of the housing scarcity everywhere, a Governmental agency should be anxious to dispose of empty huts in a manner likely to ease that situation in any locality. There would be no profit in using the lumber in the Nanaimo huts elsewhere when it is badly needed in that city by veterans prepared to buy it.

Fortunately, some order is promised to the confusion caused by the abrupt action of War Assets Corporation. Officials of Housing Enterprises have been instructed to confer with Nanaimo veterans regarding disposition of the huts in question. The veterans would be well advised to co-operate, notwithstanding their disappointment over the transfer of the huts. The main thing is to put the lumber to prompt local use, no matter which agency is now the negotiating party. The incident should have its lesson for all governmental bodies. Straightforward negotiations are always most desirable, without the introduction of procedures which confuse the issue. There was no need in this instance of a third party to the deal. Nor should its entry cause any increase in price over what might have been attainable through War Assets Corporation direct.

Policy Sustained

The revolt of dissident members of the Labor Party in the British House of Commons this week petered out like a damp squib. When the roll was called none of the 57 objectors to the Bevin foreign policy displayed even the courage of his convictions. They all abstained from voting. With the Conservatives lined up solidly behind the Attlee administration on this issue, the British Foreign Secretary, though absent in New York at a meeting of Allied Foreign Ministers, was sustained by a vote of 353 to 0. The result should strengthen Mr. Bevin's position in his present dealings with his contemporaries of other countries.

Prime Minister Attlee gave the lie direct to the charge that Great Britain and the United States were "ganging up" against Russia. The United Kingdom, he stated, while unable to match either Russia or America in armed strength, was pursuing its own democratic way in seeking progress with the United Nations. He made a pertinent point when he said that foreign policy could not have changed after the Labor Government took office because "a general election does not change geography." That is the crux of the matter, realized by thinking persons but conveniently overlooked by some circles for their own purposes.

The external position of a country does not change because its Government may change. The welfare of its people remains the same: which is the fundamental reason for the similarity of Great Britain's present foreign policy with that of the preceding Churchill Administration. If the left wing of the Labor group find the United States and Great Britain united at times against Russian proposals, they may note the reason easily enough. It is not because of any desire to unite against a valuable wartime ally, but because of the intransigent attitude adopted by Mr. Molotov despite the most conciliatory gestures of the Western democracies.

Seen in Passing

Some divergence among men of science as to whether the planetary system in which we live is 1,500,000,000 years old with a like period in which to subsist, or whether it is very much older with a considerably longer future ahead of it, is apt to leave the average mortal indifferent. By the side of such computations the human day is that of the Mayfly, between a sun and a sun, with a little shade in between.

Of all the arts to which men have turned their hands, music is that which has crossed the most borders peacefully. It is an universal language, needing few interpreters. It can quicken the pulse, calm human fears, rescue the heart, or free the mind of its gravest burden—anxiety. Yet to speak the truth this is not a musical age, but one which is living on the musical genius of bygone times.

A Child's Laughter

All the bells of heaven may ring,
All the birds of heaven may sing,
All the wells on earth may spring,
All the winds on earth may bring
All sweet sounds together:
Sweeter far than all things heard,
Hand of harper, tone of bird,
Sound of woods at sundown stirr'd,
Welling water's winsome word,
Wind in warm sun weather;

One thing yet there is, that none
Hearing ere its chime be done,
Knows not well the sweetest one
Heard of man beneath the sun.
Hoped in heaven hereafter:
Soft and strong and loud and light,—
Very sound of very light
Heard from morning's rosiest height,—
When the soul of all delight
Fills a child's clear laughter.

Golden bells of welcome rolled
Never loath such notes nor told
Hours to blithe in tones so bold,
As the radiant mouth of gold
Here that rings forth heaven,
If the golden-crested wren
Were a nightingale—why, then
Something seen and heard of men
Might be half as sweet as when
Laughs a child of seven.

OLYMPIC GAMES

While the next Olympic Games are a year-and-a-half off yet, it does not look as though they were being planned with the Olympian detachment that one would like to associate with the resumption of are already being heard about the vexed question of "broken-time" payments to athletes who may be taking part in the 1948 London games. The amateur-professional controversy is a hot one in Olympic Games circles, and always has been. The rapid view, held most strongly in Great Britain and America, is that if an athlete accepts money at all, even in compensation for broken time, he is a professional, and is therefore outside the pale of the quadrennial classic. Canadian opinion is not quite so emphatic. It recognizes that some athletes simply can't afford to take part unless the loss in salary is made up to them.

Some other countries apparently hold also to the view that part-time payments do not necessarily professionalize an athlete. Russian players of various games, for example, are said to be paid for their activities, and if present rules are adhered to this would bar them from participation in the forthcoming Olympic Games. The games would then become all-inclusive, as one would think it most desirable they should be next time.

OPEN TO ALL

I suppose it is iconoclastic to say so, but wouldn't it be a good thing to forget all about amateurs or professionals and open the Olympic Games to all comers? There is no distinction made of color, class or creed. Why have any distinction about money?

It can never be clear cut anyway. If it could, then it would mean that Olympic Games were the monopoly of athletes fortunate enough to be well off financially. This might make them the sort of social function some circles might prefer, but if they are to be representative of the sporting skills of the world another kind of criteria should be the rule.

There is quite a bit of humbug nowadays about amateurism in any event. Not all the athletes who took part in Olympics of recent decades did so at their own personal expense. Many prominent amateur champions of various kinds are known to have no private means, yet their whole time seems to be taken up with sports. Other ways have been found to recoup them, that is all. Strict insistence on so-called amateur standards has resulted in many cases in devious means of deception.

CHANGED CONDITIONS

The time is long past since the terms amateur and professional meant what they did originally. They used to differentiate socially—the paid, or low-brow, performer from the unpaid, or high-brow, athlete. They were also used to prevent greater professional skills competing against lesser amateur competence.

These conditions don't exist any more, or at least not to a worthwhile degree. We are all wiser socially, and in the matter of skill there is nothing to choose between the amateur and the professional. In some fields the amateur is usually the best exponent, in others, the professional.

Olympic Games would represent, as perhaps they should, the acme of athletic endeavour where there are no bars of any kind to the competitor. There would be a greater test of sporting prowess if the door was open to all comers, no matter what their social standing. And if the aim is to provide healthy and pleasant rivalry among the cream of the world's athletes, as one supposes it to be, why create unpleasantness by the erection of barriers which at best are only artificial.

MARATHON RACE

As all sportsmen know, the blue-ribbon of the Olympic Games is the marathon race, which commemorates the historic feat of Pheidippides following the Battle of Marathon in 490 B.C. It could be said with justice that although an Olympic champion of repute, Pheidippides did not run his marathon as an amateur. He did so in his professional capacity of Athenian dispatch bearer, and it cost him his life.

Of sports records in general the Encyclopaedia Britannica, remarks that "it is impossible to assess truly either the world's or Olympic records on account of the varying conditions in different countries." The same statement holds good with professional sports. What is said for the goose in one country is not similar nourishment for the gander in another. In one land an athlete may receive compensation without it affecting his status one way or another; in another he may be compartmentalized because of it.

Noting the difficulty of establishing good will these days in more serious realms of international affairs, it might be a good idea if the forthcoming Olympic Games could be set as a model of toleration to the views of competing participants. Let the best men win, whether he be poor or rich, a professional or an amateur. Treat them all as players on a field of honor. The Olympic Games are predicated on ancient events—when skill alone reigned supreme. Let it reign.

Border Smuggling Is Profitable in Germany

By GAULT MacGOWAN

North American Newspaper Alliance
HARZ MOUNTAINS, BRITISH Zone, Germany, Nov. 18.—The old-time thrilling stories of smugglers vs. border guard have been reborn on the forested and hilly frontier where three zones come together here. Economic exchange between the zones, which the Allies in Berlin have not been able to agree upon, is going on here every day on an illicit border basis.

The profits are such that any adventurous young man with a taste for running a blockade can make it worthwhile to take a clandestine trip from one zone to another with nothing but a rucksack on his back. If things get too hot for him on the British or the Russian side of the border, he can vary his routine by slipping into the American zone or—if need be—into the French zone, 125 miles across country.

Perhaps the simplest thing he can smuggle out of the Russian zone is Communist propaganda pamphlets and newspapers. The import of these is strictly prohibited in the British zone; but forbidden fruit tastes sweetest and Red zone prints fetch a good price among a public extremely short on literature of any kind. The buyers don't agree with everything they read in the Soviet zone newspapers, but they like to compare life there with life as they see it in the British zone. In the aggregate, it is estimated, tons of Communist literature are brought surreptitiously into the British zone.

More in demand by women are the silk stockings which appear, surprisingly, still to be manufactured in Russian-occupied Saxony.

Observation Car

James Russell Lowell wrote: "In vain we call old notions fudge, and bend our conscience to our dealings. The Ten Commandments will not budge, and stealing will continue stealing."

When Faisal Ibn Abdul Aziz, of Arabia, was asked at a United Nations' conference why he made no public speeches, he replied: "Public speaking is like the sands of the desert. It blows constantly without doing any good."

Frank Lloyd Wright, noted American architect, declared during a recent interview at New York: "There is no skilled labor in this country. The unions limited apprenticeship. Now the old, fine craftsmen are dead, and there are no new ones. We cannot produce anything now because of interference with the law of supply and demand. Our shortages are not natural. Lumber will be a luxury material for some time, and we will have to build with concrete."

The Government of Argentina fixed the following men's clothing ceilings: Men's suits and overcoats, $17.25; shirts, $3.18; sweaters, $3; pajamas, $4.50; and socks 41c.

Hon. C. F. Clark, Minister of the Interior in the Government of South Africa, noted the country can absorb 100,000 immigrants per year for some time to come when transportation and housing difficulties have been overcome. Miners, mechanics, carpenters, blacksmiths and office clerks are at present urgently needed.

According to the Seattle Chamber of Commerce, the tourist industry in the State of Washington was valued at $22,000,000 from January to the end of September. During that period 814,000 tourists visited Seattle, spent $11 per day each, and stayed an average of two and one-half days. Alaska imports $82,000,000 worth of merchandise and food per year. Businessmen in the Far North found it was cheaper to make purchases in the Middle West, ship goods by rail through British Columbia, and thence by boat from Prince Rupert.

Construction program of the city water department will not be held up while waiting for the Cleveland report on the water survey of South Vancouver Island. It was announced following a meeting of the water board yesterday.

Ald. J. A. Worthington, chairman, said estimates of the cost of new construction were in the course of preparation and would be submitted to the City Council at the beginning of the year. Board at present is working on recommendations made by F. C. Stewart following a special survey of the water distribution system—undertaken last year, he said.

Applications have been received this year for 614 new installations of water service, Alderman Worthington stated.

The board has been requested by the American Waterworks Association, Pacific Northwest section, to make arrangements for holding the group's 1947 convention in this city from May 17 to 20. About 300 delegates are expected to attend.

CANADA'S THANKS

Sir,—May I say just a few words regarding parcels to Britain? The question in point, to my way of thinking, is not that the people in England can or cannot get certain foods; the whole purpose in sending parcels is gratitude.

We in Canada have much to offer flowing with gratitude and admiration for those grand people who stood up to the awful bombing and dreadful blackout, who lost homes, belongings and their dear ones who spent nights in shelters or out in the darkness, fighting fires, tending the wounded, in fact, "carrying on"—for what? To save mankind.

Did they complain? Not they. They are made of a fibre that would never cry out. They went doggedly on through all the "blood, toil, sweat and tears," and did a magnificent job, while we in Canada went comfortably to bed each night, with no fear of being homeless or penniless in the morning. We ate three good meals a day, and still do, and now some people seem to think we have no right to send 20 pounds of food to a loved one over there.

God forbid that we Canadians, and I am one, should ever have a small vision.

If we were to send all the food in Canada we could never make up to those grand people who stood alone in the darkness and sacrifice they have had.

We, if we went to England today, could not talk the same language as those people. We know little of the hardships and sacrifices they have had. Let us send and send again as long as we can. For the sake of humanity, may there "Always Be an England."

the Oak Bay Theatre. It's a tender, charming story of a little girl, her big sister and a concert orchestra that knows how to put on a hot jam session.

PLAZA Movie Director Jacques Tourneur, known in Hollywood as a stickler for authenticity in his pictures, is said to have been more painstaking than ever before while preparing and scheduling for "Canyon Passage." The Universal Technicolor release, produced by Walter Wanger, ends tonight at the Plaza Theatre. Dana Andrews, Brian Donlevy and Susan Hayward are co-starred.

RIO "Frisco Kid," which ends tonight at the Rio Theatre, is a thrilling drama of the western frontier in the '30s. The locale of the story is San Francisco's notorious Barbary Coast.

James Cagney plays the role of a sailor who fights his way to home of San Francisco's Barbary Coast at a time when the noose of the vigilantes was the only check on robbery, rioting, arson and murder.

In the cast are Margaret Lindsay and Ricardo Cortez.

Letters to the Editor

"PUT THE QUESTION"

Sir:—Your editorial of the 16th

last suggesting that a plebiscite be taken now is of far more importance than whether the mayor shall have a two-year term of office.

The amalgamation question is being shelved, and the people want to know who is doing the stalling.

Where is the spirit of democracy outraged by putting the question now? What are the "additional facts" which can only be decided by experts? Is it the question of taxation only that holds up this vital question? What injustice can there be for the people of Greater Victoria to get together on all questions affecting the community? Is it sound policy to have a Greater Victoria Cemetery Board but not a Water Board? Is there urgency and utmost wisdom in the need for a Greater Victoria School Board, but not a Police Commission of Greater Victoria? Have our municipalities adjacent been so efficient in the detection and punishment of crime that there is no occasion for amalgamation of our police bodies?

Shall we continue to fight for municipal local autonomy, while the greater questions of justice and protection are left to the mercy of inexperienced, unco-ordinated action? If that is the meaning of this plea for more time, then it is also a don't care attitude which is quite unworthy of the citizens of this British community. The residents of Oak Bay are equally interested with the citizens of Victoria in every single problem affecting the "good and welfare of Greater Victoria. Our undertakings. A well-ordered Greater Victoria means success for all the people in that area as a result of their well co-ordinated plans.

Would it not be a God-send for the citizens of Saanich to include their rapidly-growing municipality in a Greater Victoria, where there would be fullest autonomy and hope for complete harmony of interests; and is it not also true that the very small Township of Esquimalt would take on new order and significance by such amalgamation? Or shall we continue with our ill-prepared schemes for individual municipal development, without plan, without economy and without destiny? It is time to take the plebiscite now, to ascertain the will of the people;

Electric Motors Being Distributed

A quantity of small war-surplus electric motors, generators, and fans have now been allocated by War Assets Corporation to its regional offices and are now being distributed to the electrical trade. It was announced yesterday.

The motors and generators were formerly used in aircraft and are of 12 or 24-volt capacity.

The fans vary from small 12-volt direct current types suitable for use in truck or bus ventilation or heating, to large blowers into suitable for heavy ventilating or exhausting operations. All fans are equipped with motors.

Ex-airman Offered Concert Contract

A young Vancouver ex-airman, Brian Hanson, 192 West Twelfth, who studied voice under the veterans' training plan, has been offered a contract with the Bredon-Savoy Light Opera troupe as the result of auditions given in Vancouver on Friday.

Six other Vancouver vocalists are being placed on a waiting list and will be called when impresario Barry Bredon has a spot for them in his expanding Gilbert and Sullivan touring party.

Brian Hanson who was stationed at Patricia Bay during the war, is well known in Sidney and district. He is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dignan of North Saanich.

Isabelle Dickson

Wed in Lace Gown

First United Church was the scene of the marriage of Isabelle Yule, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dickson, Glanford Avenue, and Cecil Gordon Rogers, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rogers, Agnes Street, on Saturday evening. Rev. H. A. McLeod officiated.

Given away by her father, the bride was charming in a white lace gown, en train, styled with fitted bodice. Her finger-tip veil was held by a Mary Stuart headdress and her only ornament was a string of pearls, the gift of the groom. She carried a shower bouquet of red roses, gardenias and white asters.

Mrs. A. G. McClellan, of Vancouver, was matron of honor, and Miss Isabelle Murray, also of Vancouver, and Miss Mary Comerford, bridesmaids, wore floor-length gowns of blue, pink and mauve, with head-dresses to match. They carried arm-touquets of pink carnations, pink and mauve asters.

Mr. J. Victor Rogers, of Trail, B.C., was best man, while Mr. O. Lindsay-Dickson and Mr. Arthur Lunney were ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents. A three-tiered wedding cake, flanked by tall tapers, centred the bride's table. The toast to the bride was given by the best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers motored to Portland for their honeymoon, the bride wearing a coral wool dress, fur coat, brown hat with matching accessories and corsage of yellow roses and white gardenias. They will make their home at Kimberley, B.C.

Dominoes to Clash With Alpine Dairy

Meet Strong Seattle Rivals Saturday
In Toughest Contest of Early Season

The highlight cage battle of the early season will be played at Victoria High School this Saturday when the Seattle Alpine Dairy Club meets the local team in exhibition play. The always-powerful Sound City quintette, Dominoes' chief antagonists last year, are reported to be bringing over a strong team studded with names of stars familiar to fans here.

Although the exact line-up has not yet been announced, Coach Tom Werner has on the roster this year such well-known players as Arnie Reed, 6' 3" high-scoring pivot with the team last year; Roy Williamson, a clever player and a member of visiting teams here since 1936; and John Katica, dangerous sniper, who was assigned as checkmate to Norm Baker of Dominoes last year. The loss of Hooper and Watson to the team this year has been compensated by the return of Bob Voelker and Bob Graf, after stints in the armed forces. Jack O'Neill, Ross Werner, and Jack Voelker are other players on the squad who have performed to the delight of Victoria fans in past seasons.

Recent additions to the team include Vic Munson, Pat McGregor, and Ed Sands, brother of Bill Sands who played here with Seattle College last year.

Dominoes will be faced with a difficult task in attempting to extend their unbeaten streak at the expense of the Alpine outfit, especially if Art Chapman, Porky Andrews and Doug Peden do not arrive from Vancouver for the game.

Five Year Tie-Up In Football Classic

BERKELEY, Calif., Nov. 19 (AP)—A five-year tie-up between the Pacific Coast Conference and the Big Nine conference for the Rose Bowl football classic was approved tonight for the next five years, but negotiating officials continued to debate whether Army should be given this year's bid.

A Pacific Conference representative said agreement on all other matters had been reached in today's closed meeting.

But regardless of whether the two-conference tie-up begins with the 1947 or 1948 game, it would run for five years, he said. The Big Nine would provide an "Eastern" opponent from its own teams for each of the first three years, and could "nominate" opponents for the final two years.

The closed session of representatives of the two conferences continued tonight after a dinner-hour recess.

Cub Pitchers Out

CHICAGO, Nov. 19 (AP)—Chicago Cubs today announced outright release to Los Angeles of the Pacific Coast League pitchers Verne Olsen and Les Fleming, who saw limited relief service with the Braves last season. Olsen was hampered by a leg injury.

Three Sets of Brothers on N.Y.U. Team

There are three sets of brothers here and inasmuch as only five can play the game of basketball one set would necessarily be broken during a game. On the New York University team are: left to right, Ray and Wilbur Lamp, Dick and Bill Kor, and John and Bob Dederian.

Member of Championship Football Team Played Through Season With One Leg

TORONTO, Nov. 18 (CP).—Of the thousands who watched Parkdale Collegiate's football team play all season and win the Toronto Junior High School title, only a few knew that 16-year-old Gord Shorting, playing inside on the line, had only one leg.

With courage and determination, Shorting started playing sports again five years ago after his right leg was amputated and an artificial foot had been fitted.

He tried his hand at football, hockey, volleyball, basketball and swimming, and did pretty well at all of them. More recently he turned out for track and field events and makes a specialty of the broad jump.

Vancouver Hockey Game Broken Up byirate Fans

VANCOUVER, Nov. 19 (CP).—A Seattle-Vancouver Pacific Coast Hockey League game ended in a near-riot at the Vancouver Forum tonight when hockey-mad fans protested failure of officials to award a penalty following a player fight, and littered the ice with so much refuse the game had to be stopped and awarded to Seattle.

The game was officially forfeited to Seattle on a 5-1 score—the count at the time a fight broke out between Bernie Bathgate, Canuck centre and Peckles Little, Seattle goalie, after only three minutes of the third period.

The flare-up came when Little and Bathgate clashed in front of the Seattle cage. It ended with Bathgate knocking to the ice, but the officials apparently did not see the scrap and no penalty was awarded.

When the referee tried to face-off the puck again the fans went wild and hurled everything they could

Midweek League Leaders Clash

Each tied with Hudson's Bay at the top of the Wednesday Soccer League standings, Spencers and Navy will contest one of today's matches in a game scheduled for Admirals Road at 2:30 p.m. Last week's game between Spencers and Hudson's Bay, won by the former, will be replayed as a result of a disagreement over the use of players signed with teams in the Victoria and District Football Association.

The other game between Hudson's Bay and Army has been cancelled.

Apostoli Wins

Baker Due Back For Saturday Tilt

Norm Baker will arrive in Victoria this Saturday and will play for Dominoes in the exhibition cage battle against Seattle Alpine Dairy. Joe Bryant announced last night.

Word was received by Dominoes from Baker that he was on his way home from Chicago, where his crack at the professional game did not pan out well due to a 48-hour release clause in the contract.

Whether Baker will elect to play the season with Dominoes or link up with the Vancouver pro team remains problematical, Bryant said.

Bryant, who was assistant manager of the Dominoes last year, has been delegated as manager, at least temporarily, by Dave Nicol. Nicol cannot spare the time from his business at present to give full-time duty to the team, Bryant said.

Mount View Wins Final Cage Game

Mount Douglas High School eagles outlasted a fighting Mount View club in 26-19 in final inter-high basketball game at Memorial Hall yesterday afternoon. Combining a tricky passing attack with some accurate shooting, Mount Douglas held command most of the way.

Fred Fernyhough, elusive star of Mount View, took scoring honors with 13 points. A close second with a dozen was Don McGee, steady playing guard for the winners.

Pro Basketball League Details Worked Out at Portland Meeting

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 19 (AP).—Franchise holders in the new Pacific Coast Professional Basketball League—made up of Oregon, Washington and British Columbia teams—met here today to adopt a game schedule and iron out other details.

Commissioner Bobby Morris of Seattle said the league had been set up on a sound basis and was assured of completing its first season.

No effort will be made to sign players with college eligibility, nor will the league attempt to lure away players from other leagues.

That was 25 years ago in Montreal; the 13-year-old boy was nicknamed "Jockey" Nick Wall and the famous act touched off one of the brightest racing careers of all time.

A stable owner named Ollie Tugle saw what happened.

"Are you a jockey?" he asked.

Nick said he wasn't, but would like to be.

Three years later he returned to Canada, a full-fledged jockey and rode to the big money stakes for several years before leaving for California.

Since then he has been continually on the move from one side of the continent to the other, his fame enhanced by such startling track efforts as the day he coaxed Steadfast to a slim lead over Sea Biscuit in the 100,000 Santa Anita Handicap in 1938, and the time he rode to victory aboard Nenny, just noising out the immortal War Admiral.

Today Nick lies in hospital at San Mateo, Calif., recovering from injuries suffered in a fall during a race several weeks ago.

But the same fighting heart that made him one of the best in his dangerous business has not failed him in his battle against severe internal injuries.

Colville Will Direct New York Rangers

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (AP).—Neil Colville will direct New York Rangers, of the National Hockey League, in their game at Detroit Thursday, while Coach Frank Boucher makes a quick trip through the American League looking for talent to help his bottom-place club.

Boucher will rejoin the club in Montreal Saturday, and if Bill Johnston, defenseman now with the Rangers' farm club at New Haven, has recovered from his charley-horse, he also will join the Rangers there.

Irving Seeking Replacement Of Toe Blake

MONTREAL, Nov. 19 (CP).—The chairman of the Montreal Canadiens is seeking a replacement for Toe Blake, who is expected to leave the team.

First comes Leo Gravelle, blond right wing, speedster from amateur days, and Roger Leger, high-scoring defenseman, and now a valuable player of American Hockey League the last two seasons. The latest recruit was 25-year-old George Parfeter, of Calgary, brought up from Springfield Indians.

Dick Irvin's next worry is to restore his "punch" line. Veteran Toe Blake is still a clever ice general and a potent threat in the enemy defensive zone, but his 34-year-old legs can't keep up with Maurice Richard and Elmer Lach on the attack and on the backchecking. He still is valuable, and probably will be kept for tough spots where his ice generalship is needed, playing fewer minutes a game. But if Irvin could find a left winger to go with Lach and Richard, he'd be happy.

Durocher, who told newspapermen at the conclusion of the National League pennant playoff with St. Louis last month that he would "stay in Brooklyn until the day I die," now is on the West Coast. He last saw Ruckey October 31, in Columbus, Ohio.

Legion Cage Ace

KONNY WALKER
Stellar guard for Canadian Legion, who will be playing tonight when his team opposes Dominoes in the final tilt of the basketball card at Victoria High School gymnasium.

Having three victories against two defeats, Legion is in second place in the Senior "A" League—behind Dominoes—who have won four straight. The feature game starts at 9 p.m., with preceding contests bringing together St. Louis College Alumni and Bruisers, senior "B" outfit, and Hepcats and Comets in the opening girls' fixture.

Officials of the Winnipeg Rangers said they had filed a protest with the Manitoba Hockey Association, who in turn had protested to the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association about the New York club's action. They said that to date they are still in the dark as to what action the C.A.H.A. has taken in the case.

Winnipeg, Nov. 19 (CP).—Jack Gordon, last season Winnipeg Ranger juvenile hockey star, is appearing in New York Rangers' lineup in the United States Amateur Hockey League, despite the fact he has not received a transfer from the Ranger organization, it was learned here today.

Lipton Cup to Stay Mustangs Decide

Will Keep Rugby Trophy Safely Locked Up If Final Not Played Here, Team Determines

VANCOUVER, Nov. 19 (CP).—An official of the Big Four Rugby League said tonight that should Victoria Mustangs fail to make an appearance here Saturday for a sudden-death final against Vancouver Athletic Club for the Lipton Cup and the provincial Rugby championship, they would lose the cup and the title by default.

"That's definite," said Howie Thompson, league official who said the decision had been reached at a meeting of the league here.

Victoria holders of the cup, have asked that the final be played in Victoria.

Thompson said the league had advised Mustangs to be in Vancouver for the final Saturday and said no further action will be taken. Should Mustangs fail to appear, they will lose the cup by default, he said.

Wally Smith, Mustangs manager, queried on the above report last night, stated that the team's decision to defend the Lipton Cup here.

Next Tuesday's 15-round bout here "won't be any different" from last August's engagement, Monzon said confidently today, except that Montgomery's Pennsylvania-New York version lightweight crown will be at stake.

To this Montgomery replied: "We'll see about that when the action begins in the ring."

However, this time Montgomery says he will ask the board to allow him to put on the gloves in his dressing room and remain there until all announcements from the ring are completed so that the fighting can begin when he comes out.

Hundreds of Travel Bookings Already Made for Christmas

Christmas is just 35 days away, and Victorians wishing to travel over the holiday season are not letting the grass grow beneath their feet.

A general survey of travel and transportation offices yesterday indicated that already hundreds of reservations and bookings have been received. Practically all regular schedules on ships, buses, trains, and planes have been booked to capacity.

It is generally believed the holiday season will be the heaviest experienced for many years, and on all forms of transport and travel additional sailings, trips, or flights will be necessary.

R. J. Burland, district passenger agent of the C.P.R., said yesterday all available vessels of the company's British Columbia Coast Steamship Service will be placed in service, many of the ships scheduled for extra sailings. Despite the heavy traffic expected, no one will be "left behind," remarked Mr. Burland.

Officials of Vancouver Coach Lines Ltd., anticipating an exceptionally heavy season, already are planning additional up-land runs. A large number of island travelers will be loggers and other personnel of logging camps anxious to visit their homes at points over the island and on the mainland. All facilities of the company will be put to use over the holiday, and "all will be cared for."

The B. & N. Railway will continue operations on a regular schedule over the holiday season, it was reported, but will place additional

Police Request For Increase Will Be Studied

Request from the Victoria Police Mutual Benefit Association for an increase in the cost-of-living bonus paid to members of the department was tabled for study by the police commission yesterday afternoon.

In connection with this request Police Chief J. A. MacLellan submitted to the commission a report comparing salaries paid in Victoria with those paid in other cities in Western Canada.

Proposal to soundproof the city police courtroom at a cost of $4000 was referred to next year's estimates committee.

Commission approved an application from the chief of police for the replacement of one of the department's prowler cars at a cost of approximately $1,000.

Application to the City Council for the replacement of the City Council for the replacement of one of the department's prowler cars at a cost of approximately $1,000.

Concern was expressed by Mayor Percy E. George, chairman, over the increase in the number of infractions of city ordinances, noted in the chief's monthly report.

Chief MacLellan stated two weeks' warning had been given of all changes in traffic rules, and he attributed most of the infractions to carelessness on the part of motorists who failed to read directional signs carefully. He added that additional signs had been ordered and would be placed throughout the business district to eliminate any possibility of mistakes.

Call lumber at less than the price of wood. This lumber cannot be sold commercially at the sawmill because of being off-size, too much bark, splits, checks or other defects, but hundreds of loads are being sold, and since picked out to repair barns, sidewalks, fences and garden stakes. Even if all this lumber were cut into wood it would be cheap inside wood and a load will make about 1 1/2 cords. Especially handy for people who live outside of town and find it hard to get good wood.
This lumber is in 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5-inch boards and planks and timbers up to 10 feet long.

Announcers Vie to Give Away Prize Money

JACK Kyle, left, and Al Collins, announcers on the Six-for-One program, are vying these days for the honor of giving away $134 plus $25 worth of prizes on the program. That's what the jackpot has built up to through the inability of listeners to answer the quiz questions. Collins handles the morning program, with Kyle on hand for the matinee.

B.C.'s Population Now Over Million

ONLY reliable yardstick until a new census is taken, distribution figures for Ration Book No. 6, issued in September, show that British Columbia's population has been pushed up over the million mark, with an increase of 145,474 in the past five years.

A statement released by Wartime Prices and Trade Board shows 1,019,745 books issued, including those to residents of other provinces who picked up their books while visiting British Columbia. Vancouver Island's total is shown as 177,766, an increase of 25,338 since 1944.

Kiwanis Club Hears Story Of Huge Liner

Britain's proud and stately queen of the seas, S.S. Queen Elizabeth, was the topic of an address by Ralph Matthews, president-elect of the Kiwanis Club, at a meeting of the club yesterday at the Empress Hotel.

One week ago yesterday Mr. Matthews was on board the $5,674-ton liner in New York. He recalled his impressions of the ship, and presented a number of significant facts about the vessel.

As he boarded the great liner, the speaker said, he looked back through the centuries to times when logs, and rough canoes were man's only means of navigation. He followed through the years to modern times, when man was able to make such wonderful vessels as that he had boarded.

Mr. Matthews described the ship and some of its outstanding features. S.S. Queen Elizabeth was launched in September, 1938 by Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth. The 1,031-foot ship contains 14 decks, five being below the waterline; 12 tugs are required to dock her; there are 10,000,000 rivets in her hull; her rudder weighs 140 tons; her three anchors each weigh 16 tons; she has 35 elevators, 4,000 miles of electrical wiring, and 30,000 electric light bulbs. The name letters on her bow are nearly three feet in height. Each of her four propellers weigh 32 tons.

The ship has passenger accommodation for 2,300 persons, and during her service as a troop ship carried as many as 18,000 Allied fighting men at one time. The ship contains two motion picture galleries, and three huge kitchens. Kitchen facilities Mr. Matthews added, made it possible to serve 10,000 meals a day, with a total staff of 130 cooks.

During her war service, the liner carried nearly a million men of the Allied fighting forces, and travelled half a million miles. She was turned back to her owners last March. At a cost of $5,000,000 the vessel was reconverted for peacetime service. "It was the largest ship reconversion project in maritime history," remarked the speaker.

On October 21 the great ship nosed her way into New York harbor, completing her maiden voyage as a passenger vessel across the Atlantic.

THE REAL ESTATE BOARD OF VICTORIA NOTICE TO TENANTS

The Real Estate Board of Victoria wishes to draw the attention of tenants to the fact that they are responsible for the proper upkeep and protection of the dwellings in which they reside.

It is quite possible that during the coming winter extra precautions may be necessary in respect of plumbing and fixtures. We therefore desire to impress upon you the fact that a little extra attention in the way of turning off the water, securing draining pipes and other precautions, on any indication of severe frost, will not only save considerable expense but great inconvenience to yourself.

We have every confidence in your co-operation.

Thanking you,
Yours very truly,
HERBERT LETHBRIDGE, Secretary.

Howe Explains Priority System In Telegram to Mayor George

Clarification of some aspects of the priorities system for the distribution of building supplies here was contained in a telegram received yesterday by Mayor Percy E. George from Hon. C. D. Howe, Minister of Reconstruction and Supply.

In a reply to a query from the City Council, Mr. Howe stated that equivalent ratings for priorities had been established for Wartime Housing, Ltd., Soldier Settlement and V.I.A. projects, other accredited housing programs and veteran's houses 50 per cent or more complete. There is no priority as between these projects, the telegram stated.

In its request for clarification of the system the City Council had pointed out that local supplies of building materials had been granting priority in the order these projects were set out in the Government order, thus placing veterans with homes half completed in last place.

Mr. Howe suggested a meeting of lumber dealers and other building material suppliers in Victoria at which the operation of the priority system could be explained in detail by representatives of the Department of Reconstruction and Supply.

A reply was also received yesterday to a telegram sent to the timber controller by the City Council, in which it was requested that a directive be issued to lumber mills in this area "to provide for a first priority to veterans whose houses are 50 per cent complete over any other class for a stated period, say 90 days."

Mr. Flahiff pointed out that as veterans who have homes 50 per cent complete are in last place.
